LIFESTYLE COMMITMENT

Dayspring Community Sports operates under the direction of Dayspring Wesleyan Church. We believe God has given us the Bible as a way of explaining to us how to live in the world He has created. Whether you are a Christian or not, as a volunteer of Dayspring Community Sports, we are asking you to adhere to some simple requirements below to make our program the safest and most family-friendly program in our community.

1. I am a committed "champion" of the Dayspring Community Sport's mission, values and strategy; I am personally engaged to help implement these in the lives of the children and families I serve.
2. I will be "above reproach" in all areas of sexual contact with children. As a man, I will never be alone with a girl and as a woman, I will never be alone with a boy. Other than my own child, I will not enter a restroom alone with a child.
3. I will ensure that what I do on the field or in the gym, in the community, and on my social media does not reflect poorly on the mission and reputation of Dayspring Community Sports. I realize that different levels of leadership require different requirements. I will ensure I fully understand the expectations for my area of ministry.
4. I recognize a good attitude is invaluable to morale and I commit to being a positive influence. This includes not belittling children, arguing with parents publicly, or openly criticizing referees or other coaches on the court/field, on social media, or in private conversations.
5. I realize I am representing Dayspring Community Sports and, therefore I will dress modestly and appropriately when I am serving at Dayspring. This includes men wearing shirts or hats that promote alcohol/tobacco/drugs or musicians/bands that promote hyper-sexual or violent lifestyles. This includes women wearing shirts that expose undergarments or extremely short shorts.
6. In order to promote a healthy lifestyle for our children, we ask that coaches not consume any alcoholic beverages or smoke/dip/chew while on the field/court as an acting coach.
7. I will carry out the task of doing devotions with my team each week
8. DCS COMMISSIONERS ONLY: As a commissioner, I am a representative of the broader mission of Dayspring Wesleyan Church and, therefore, will attend 75% of Sunday morning services a month.
9. I realize the leadership of DCS have the best interests of the program and my best interest in mind and if I neglect any of the above commitments, I'm open their encouragement or gentle correction in order to build a better DCS community and make me a better leader.
10. If at any point I choose not to adhere to this commitment, the DCS Director reserves the right to remove me from my leadership position.

My signature represents that I understand the mission, values, strategy, statements of beliefs and lifestyle commitments of Dayspring Community Sports.
